4.Methodology, learning tasks, syllabus and resources

4.1.Methodological overview

The learning process that is designed for this subject is based on the following:

Once you have chosen the position of performance, the student must fulfill effectively the task assigned (under supervision of a tutor in the center) and present and discuss with the tutor at the University a portfolio of cases that occurred during practice (approximately 3 cases per working week).

A case should consist of a detailed introduction to indicate what the situation was that he faced, a section which describes the case that has been resolved (not needed to have been solved by the student) and finally a critical analysis of the case and other possible solutions.
