1. General information

1.1. Aims of the course

The approaches and objectives of this course are aligned with all the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations 2030 Agenda (<https://www.un.org/sustainabledevelopment/es/>), in such a way that the learning process provides training and competence to contribute to some extent to their achievement.

2. Learning goals

3. Assessment (1st and 2nd call)

4. Methodology, learning tasks, syllabus and resources

4.1. Methodological overview

The Master's promotes the active participation of the students in their training. For this reason, a traineeship period is included in a public administration body (local, provincial, autonomous or state level), in an institution of social initiative or in a non-governmental organization, under the direction and follow-up of a responsible tutor at the receiving center and the coordinator of the Master's. The internship includes and completes with the preparation of a final master's report.

4.2. Learning tasks

The course includes the following learning tasks:

- A presentation of the general approach of the internship, with the concrete proposals of the institutions.
- Individualized sessions with the assigned tutors for the development of the internship along with the guidance, mediation and, when appropriate, the accompaniment to the institutions for the performance of the internships [see in the final annex the offer of internships, it will be updated in November].
