5.1.General methodological presentation

The current subject is conceived as a stand-alone combination of contents, yet organized into two fundamental and complementary forms, which are: the theoretical concepts of each teaching unit, the solving of problems or resolution of questions, at the same time supported by other activities such as public presentations.

The organization of teaching will be carried out using the following steps:

30162 - Management of International Relations

Theory Classes : Theoretical activities carried out mainly through exposition by the teacher, where the theoretical supports of the subject are displayed, highlighting the fundamental, structuring them in topics and or sections, interrelating them.

Practical Classes : Carried by teacher and students. Practical problems or cases for demonstrative purposes. This type of teaching complements the theory shown in the lectures with practical aspects.

Individual Tutorials : Those carried out giving individual, personalized attention with a teacher from the department. Said tutorials may be in person or online.
