5.2.Learning activities

The program that the student is offered to help him to achieve the expected results includes the following activities ...

1) Lectures : They consist of the exhibition lectures by the teacher, encouraging student participation. Its purpose is to convey the concepts of the subject in a clear, systematic, concise and entertaining way. It also aims to arouse interest in the subject and motivate students in their individual study. The teacher will explain the legal concepts, institutions and principles of the program of the subject. That explanation is not exclusively theoretical or conceptual, but will emphasize the practical use of knowledge transmitted. It thus seeks to promote critical thinking and attitude to the law. It is proposed that the lecture is in a more conversational space in which not only exposes the teacher, but also questions, doubts are resolved and eventually discuss and debate.

2) Practical activities. The teacher will provide students with practical activities through the virtual platform of the subject.
