in order to receive approval, a brief preliminary report including the objectives, methodology and work plan. Once the approval of this initial approach, the student will begin the development of the Master's Thesis, which will benefit from the resources available in the Master and, above all, the advice of the tutor.

5.2.Learning activities

The program that the student is offered to help you achieve the expected results includes the following activities:

Tutorials with the academic coordinator of the Masters to define the topic, tutor and type -based or not in external practice- of the Master's Thesis.

Tutorials with the tutor of the Master's Thesis.

Tutorials with visiting professors.

5.3.Program

5.4.Planning and scheduling

Schedule of sessions and presentation of works

During the first semester, the Academic Coordinator, through mentoring work, will advise students in defining the topic, tutor and modality of the Master's Thesis, based on student preferences and the availability of teachers.

Official calls scheduled for the deposit and defense of Master's Thesis in this Masters are: June (first) and September (second). The Faculty of Health and Sport Sciences sets the period for each of these calls, in which the act of defense must be performed. Within each period, the Academic coordination of the master sets the day or specific days of development of the public event.
