

30522 - International Private Law

Información del Plan Docente

Academic Year	2018/19
Subject	30522 - International Private Law
Faculty / School	102 - Facultad de Derecho
Degree	432 - Joint Law - Business Administration and Management Programme
ECTS	9.0
Year	5
Semester	Second semester
Subject Type	Compulsory
Module	---

1.General information

1.1.Aims of the course

1.2.Context and importance of this course in the degree

1.3.Recommendations to take this course

2.Learning goals

2.1.Competences

2.2.Learning goals

2.3.Importance of learning goals

3.Assessment (1st and 2nd call)

3.1.Assessment tasks (description of tasks, marking system and assessment criteria)

4.Methodology, learning tasks, syllabus and resources

4.1.Methodological overview

Teaching of Private International Law is founded on a double theoretical and practical methodology. Therefore it seeks, through lectures, the transmission of knowledge and concepts in an understandable way. Through practical activities directed by the Professor, the student learns how to apply theoretical knowledge to the solution and regulation of international private relations or heterogeneous in its practical side.

4.2.Learning tasks

1.- Formative activities, teaching methodology and relation with the competence to acquire and the learning outcomes.

30522 - International Private Law

2.- The program of the course will develop the basic content of Private International Law contained in the Report of the Degree.

4.3.Syllabus

The program of the subject will develop the following basic contents:

1.- Purpose, content and sources of Private International Law. Function and concept of Private International Law. Autonomous Private International Law and Community Private International Law. Internal dimension of Private International Law.

2.- International jurisdiction. Civil process and border disputes. International civil cooperation.

3.- Technical regulations and standards. Law applicable to international private relations: general issues and problems of implementation.

4.- Applicable Law to private international relations (special part) Right: International relations of Civil Law, International Trade and International Labour Law.

5.- Extraterritorial effectiveness of foreign acts and decisions.

4.4.Course planning and calendar

Planning and scheduling of meeting and activities will be specified for each group of the subject by the responsible Professor before beginning the classroom teaching and in accordance with the academic calendar and teaching program of the Faculty of Law.

4.5.Bibliography and recommended resources