4.1.Methodological overview

The learning process has been designed and based on the premise that the students of the master's are Law graduates, and hence it is presumed that they have the theoretical knowledge of the subjects of their degree, so the course work will not stop at the explanation of theoretical questions. However, the lawyer's professional field is not included among the knowledge obtained through the Degree and might be unknown by the Master student.

The methodology followed in this course is oriented towards achievement of the learning objectives. It is based on active participation, case studies, teamwork etc. that favors the development of communicative skills and critical thinking. A wide range of teaching and learning tasks are implemented, such as lectures, practical activities, practice sessions, autonomous work, tutorials, and academic guidance.

Further information regarding the course will be provided on the first day of class.

4.2.Learning tasks

The course includes 2 ECTS organized according to:

- Lectures 8 hours.
- Practice sessions 8 hours.

- Autonomous work: 8 hours.
